

Manufacturing company

goods were carried by the container from company to ware house distributor are plays intermediater for retailers and company product are stored in ware house for retailers

The product are bought by the reatilers from the distributor now the customer were buy the item in eassy manner without facing any difficulties saled item information were stored stock intemation send through E mails about stock gets down headquaters

stock of the each item information are store in cloud storage cloud storage

order were placed after product gets down in the retailer shop shipment order

purchase order